Zimmer360 Home Store & Design Service

Our apologies to The Bard, but some people are born to design, some achieve good design, and others need design thrust upon them.

If you can't tell the difference between cyan and cerulean, time to call in the pros.

Zimmer360 functions as both a home interiors store and a consulting service. The creative forces behind the venture are not only masters of design, but also moms — which makes them extra qualified to tackle your nursery or kid's room.

Start from scratch or use what you already have. They'll help you firm up your vision, design a plan for improvement, and create a space that encourages creativity while respecting your child's unique personality.

Just as they, er, you like it.
